The same meticulous care from selection to installation.

01 Right product selection

Find the perfect expression for your space through our decors and grain characteristics.

02 Clear technical information

Evaluate dimensions, thickness, and the click system alongside your chosen product code.

03 Tailored project planning

Let's plan the take-offs, quotation, and supply processes together according to your needs.

STONEKS

Aesthetic surface. Powerful performance.

A choice that begins with color and texture is perfected with details that make daily life easier.

Water-resistant structure

The SPC composite core offers superior resistance against liquid contact.

Robust surface protection

A protective surface highly resistant to scratches, stains, and daily wear.

Acoustic comfort with IXPE

The integrated underlayment helps reduce impact sound transmission.

Underfloor heating compatibility

Can be used with underfloor heating systems under appropriate application and system conditions.

Practical click-lock system

Panels connected via a click system make installation a breeze.

Easy cleaning and maintenance

A surface that facilitates effortless daily maintenance with appropriate cleaning products.

TECHNICAL PERFORMANCE

Features vary depending on the product structure. For application and maintenance conditions, the technical data sheet of the selected product applies.
Reaction to fire class and acoustic values are defined in the technical data sheet of the chosen product.
